GARY JOBSON, PRESIDENT OF U.S. SAILING, TO SPEAK AT MANASQUAN RIVER YACHT CLUB IN BRIELLE

Gary Jobson, the new President of U.S. Sailing, will be speaking at the Manasquan River Yacht Club on Thursday, February 11, 2010. The Manasquan River Yacht Club is located at 405 Riverview Lane, Brielle, N.J., 08730. Riverview Lane can be accessed from Riverview Drive in Brielle.

Mr. Jobson has a vision of how he would like to improve the governing body of the sport of sailing, and he will be sharing that vision with the audience. Mr. Jobson is also a believer in collective wisdom, and he will also be using his appearance at the Manasquan River Yacht Club to seek input from the audience on how to strengthen the partnership with yacht clubs and regional governing bodies like yacht racing associations.

Mr. Jobson has appeared at the Manasquan River Yacht Club previously, and his return to the Manasquan River Yacht Club is especially significant for New Jersey sailors because Mr. Jobson, an internationally recognized and award-winning sailor, is one of the Jersey Shore's own. Mr. Jobson started sailing as a youth on the Toms River, and he still maintains his memberships in the Beachwood and Toms River yacht clubs. He currently resides in Annapolis, MD.

In anticipation of his appearance at the Manasquan River Yacht Club, Mr. Jobson stated, "U.S. Sailing represents many diverse areas of our sport. My goal as President is to raise the visibility of the sport of sailing, engage all yacht clubs as the fundamental institution promoting the sport, simplify the procedures involved in racing, and to introduce many new people to sailing."

Racing sailors, cruising sailors sailing enthusiasts and other members of the public are invited to come to the Manasquan River Yacht Club on Thursday, February 11, 2010, for cocktails and hors d'oeuvres beginning at 7:00 P.M. and then to hear Mr. Jobson's remarks beginning at 8:00 P.M. There is no fee for admission to the event, but attendees are requested to R.S.V.P. as soon as possible because space will be limited for this popular event. Please R.S.V.P. to the Manasquan River Yacht Club Office at 732/ 528-6792.
